HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This little guidebook is designed for group use during the Spring of 2023 at Christ the King Anglican Church. It tracks with our E&F series on the Psalms. Each week follows the same basic, four-fold pattern.

READ

Begin by reading the passage.

REFLECT

Deeply reflect on the meaning of the text and respond faithfully.

PRAY

Pray that the Lord would reveal his character to you through this passage. Ask Him to show you how you should respond.

APPLY

We have not appropriately responded to God's Word until we have reflected on it, prayed it, and then acted upon it. Towards the end of your time, write down one concrete action that you hope to take in the coming week in response to what you've read, discussed, and prayed.

April 23, 2023 | PSALM 133: 1-4

READ

Psalm 133: 1-4

REFLECT

- What perspective is this passage coming from?
 - What is the Psalmist communicating to God?
 - What do you think God is communicating to you?
 - How can this passage be applied to your life? How will you respond?

PRAY

Pray that the Lord would reveal his character to you through this passage. Ask Him to show you how you should respond.

APPLY

How can you apply what you've learned to your life?

THE PSALM

Psalm 133: 1-4

- ¹ Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is * when brethren dwell together in unity.
- ² It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, *
even Aaron's beard, and went down to the edges of his clothing,
- ³ Like the dew of Hermon, *
which falls upon the hills of Zion.
- ⁴ For there the LORD promised his blessing, *
even life for evermore.

What is the Psalmist saying?

What would we like for dinner?
